BOMBAY CENTRAL EXCISE COLLECTORATE*Bombay, the 13th December 1956Notification under Section 199 of the Sea Customs Act 1878 (VIII of 1878)*

S.R.O. 24.—In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 199 of the Sea Customs Act, 1878 (VIII of 1878) the Collector of Central Excise, Bombay, as Chief Customs Officer in respect of the outports in the jurisdiction of the Bombay Central Excise Collectorate is pleased to prescribe the following rules for the levy of godown rents on the goods deposited in Custom Houses, or other places owned by or hired by the Government for the purpose of storage of goods:—

- (1) The Rules apply to all goods including personal effects landed or brought for shipment at the ports.
- (2) Goods will be allowed to remain in any Custom House or other premises mentioned in para 1 above free of charge for six whole working days from the date of completion of steamer's discharge. In calculating either of these free periods, the day of landing, the day of clearance and any Sunday and holidays immediately following the last free working day will not be reckoned.
- (3) After these periods rent will be charged for the first week or portion thereof at the rates given in the schedule below.
- (4) After the first week, twice the rates will be charged for the second week or portion thereof and thrice the rates for the third and succeeding weeks or portion thereof. These penalty rates will be reduced at the discretion of the Collector of Central Excise, Bombay.
- (5) No charge will be made for periods during which goods were detained in consequence of the inability of the Customs Officer to examine and pass them.
- (6) In the case of articles detained by the customs officers a rent of two annas per week or part of a week will be charged for each firearm, or packet of ammunition or any other parcel which is not cleared within one calendar month from the time of its receipt at the Customs House. No. rent will, however, be charged in respect of packages detained for customs purposes.
- (7) The lowest charge made under these rules will be one anna. Sums of less than half an anna will be disregarded and fractions of an anna equal to or greater than half an anna will be counted as one anna.
- (8) Rules 2 and 5 do not apply to free export goods which will pay rent for the whole period of their storage.
- (9) In case there is not enough space in any custom House and other premises mentioned in para 1 above to accommodate both import and export goods, preference will be given to the former.

2. The Government of India have ruled that once the fees fixed under this section have become payable the right thereto rests in the Government and the Chief Customs Officer has no power to waive the recovery either of the whole or part of such fees. They have however accorded their general previous consent to the waiver of such fees by the Chief Customs Officer in suitable cases.

(COFFEE CONTROL)

New Delhi, the 29th December 1956

S.R.O. 30.—In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 48 of the Coffee Act, 1942 (7 of 1942), the Central Government hereby makes the following Rules, namely:—

1. Short title and application.—(1) These rules may be called the Conduct Rules for Coffee Board employees.

(2) They shall apply to all persons employed by the Board, and to officers appointed by the Central Government under Section 9 of the Coffee Act, 1942.

2. Definition.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires—

- (a) "the Board" means the 'Coffee Board'.
- (b) "Board's employee" means any person employed by the Board and includes all officers appointed by the Central Government under Section 9 of the Coffee Act, 1942, but does not include an officer lent by the Government.
- (c) "members of the family", in relation to a Board's employee includes:
 - (i) the wife, child or step-child of such Board's employee whether residing with him or not, and in relation to a Board's employee who is a woman, the husband residing with her and dependent on her; and
 - (ii) any other person related, whether by blood or by marriage to the Board's employee or to such Board's employee's wife or husband, and wholly dependent on such Board's employee, but does not include a wife or husband legally separated from the Board's employee, or child or step-child who is no longer in any way dependent upon him or her, or of whose custody the Board's employee has been deprived by law.

3. General.—Every Board's employee shall at all time maintain absolute integrity and devotion to duty.

4. Taking part in politics and elections.—(1) No Board's employee shall be a member of, or be otherwise associated with, any political party or any organisation which takes part in politics nor shall he take part in, subscribe in aid of or assist in any other manner, any political movement or activity.

(2) It shall be the duty of every Board's employee to endeavour to prevent any member of the family from taking part in, subscribing in aid of or assisting in any other manner any movement or activity which is, or tends directly or indirectly to be, subversive of the Government as by law established, and where a Board's employee is unable to prevent a member of his family from taking part in, or subscribing in aid of, or assisting in any other manner, any such movement or activity, he shall make a report to that effect to the Board.

(3) If any question arises whether any movement or activity falls within the scope of this rule, the decision of the Board thereon shall be final.

(4) No Board's employee shall canvass or otherwise interfere or use his influence in connection with, or take part in, an election to any legislature or local authority;

Provided that:—

- (i) a Board's employee qualified to vote at such election may exercise his right to vote, but where he does so, he shall give no indication of the manner in which he proposes to vote or has voted;
- (ii) a Board's employee shall not be deemed to have contravened the provisions of this rule by reason only that he assists in the conduct of an election in the due performance of a duty imposed on him by or under any law for the time being in force;
- (iii) the Board may permit a Board's employee to offer himself as a candidate for election to a local authority and the Board's employee so permitted shall not be deemed to have contravened the provisions of this rule.

Explanation.—The display by a Board's employee on his person, vehicle or residence of any electoral symbol shall amount to using his influence in connection with an election within the meaning of this sub-rule.

5. Connection with press or radio.—(1) No Board's employee shall, except with the previous sanction of the Board, own wholly or in part, or conduct or participate in the editing or managing of, any newspaper or other periodical publication.

(2) No Board's employee shall, except with the previous sanction of the Board or any other authority empowered by it in this behalf, or in the bona fide discharge of his duties participate in a radio broadcast or contribute any article or write any letter either anonymously or in his own name or in the name of any other person to any newspaper or periodical.

Provided that no such sanction shall be required if such broadcast or such contribution is of a purely literary, artistic or scientific character.

6. Criticism of Board/Government.—No Board's employee shall, in any radio broadcast or in any document published anonymously or in his own name or in the name of any other person in any communication to the press or in any public utterance, make any statement of fact or opinion.

(i) which has the effect of an adverse criticism of any current or recent policy or action of the Board, the Central Government or a State Government; or

(ii) which is capable of embarrassing the relations between the Board, the Central Government and the Government of any State; or

(iii) which is capable of embarrassing the relations between the Board, the Central Government and the Government of any foreign state

7. Evidence before Committee or any other authority.—(1) Save as provided in sub-rule (3) no Board's employee shall, except with the previous sanction of the Board, give evidence in connection with any inquiry conducted by any person, committee or authority.

(2) Where any sanction has been accorded under sub-rule (1), no Board's employee giving such evidence shall criticise the policy or any action of the Central Government or of a State Government.

(3) Nothing in this rule shall apply to—

(a) evidence given at an inquiry before an authority appointed by the Government, by Parliament or by a State Legislature; or

(b) evidence given in any judicial inquiry; or

(c) evidence given at any departmental inquiry ordered by authorities subordinate to the Government.

8. Unauthorized communication of information.—No Board's employee shall, except in accordance with any general or special order of the Board or in the performance in good faith of the duties assigned to him, communicate, directly or indirectly, any official document or information to any Board's employee or any other person to whom he is not authorised to communicate such document or information.

9. Subscriptions.—No Board's employee shall, except with the previous sanction of the Board or of such authority as may be empowered by it in this behalf, ask for or accept contributions to, or otherwise associate himself with the raising of, any fund in pursuance of any object whatsoever.

10. Gifts.—(1) Save as otherwise provided in these rules, no Board's employee shall, except with the previous sanction of the Board, accept or permit his wife or any other member of his family to accept from any person any gift of more than trifling value:

Provided that gifts of a value, reasonable, in all circumstances of the case, may be accepted from relations and personal friends or presented to such persons on occasions such as weddings, anniversaries, funerals and religious functions when the making or receiving of such gifts is in conformity with the prevailing religious or social customs; but acceptance of such gifts other than those of a trifling value shall be reported to the Board and the gifts shall be disposed of in such manner as the Board may direct.

(2) If a question arises whether any gift is of a trifling value or not, or where a Board's employee is in any doubt whether a gift offered to him is of a trifling value or not, a reference shall be made to the Board by such Board's employee and the decision of the Board thereon shall be final.

Explanation.—Whether or not a gift should be treated as of a trifling value shall depend on who the donor is and the circumstances in which the gift is made. A gift exceeding in value 1/20th of the monthly emoluments of a Board's employee or Rs. 20 (whichever is less) from a person who is not his relation or his personal friend shall or ordinarily be regarded as a gift not of trifling value.

Gifts from relatives and personal friends upto the value of 1/8th of the monthly emoluments of the Board's employee or Rs. 50 whichever is less or even upto the value of one half of such emoluments or Rs. 200 whichever is less, on special occasions such as mentioned in the proviso to sub-rule (1) may be regarded as of trifling value.

11. Public demonstrations in honour of Board's employee.—No Board's employee shall, except with the previous sanction of the Board receive any complimentary or valedictory address or accept any testimonial or attend any meeting or entertainment held in his honour, or in the honour of any other Board's employee.

Provided that nothing in this rule shall apply to—

- (i) a farewell entertainment of a substantially private and informal character held in honour of a Board's employee or any other Board's employee on the occasion of his retirement or transfer or any person who has recently quitted service of the Board; or
- (ii) the acceptance of simple and inexpensive entertainments arranged by public bodies or institutions.

12. Private trade or employment.—(1) No Board's employee shall, except with the previous sanction of the Board, engage directly or indirectly, in any trade or business or undertake any employment;

Provided that a Board's employee may, without such sanction, undertake honorary work of a social or charitable nature or occasional work of a literary, artistic or scientific character, subject to the condition that his official duties do not thereby suffer; but he shall not undertake, or shall discontinue, such work if so directed by the Board.

Explanation.—Canvassing by a Board's employee in support of the business of insurance agency, commission agency etc., owned or managed by his wife or any other member of his family shall be deemed to be a breach of this sub-rule.

(2) No Board's employee shall, except with the previous sanction of the Board, take part in the registration, promotion or management of any bank or other company registered under the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956), or any other law for the time being in force.

Provided that a Board's employee may take part in the registration, promotion or management of a Cooperative Society registered under the Cooperative Societies Act, 1912 (2 of 1912), or any other law for the time being in force, or of a literary, scientific or charitable society registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860 (21 of 1860), or any corresponding law in force.

13. Investments, lending and borrowing.—No Board's employee shall speculate in any investment.

Explanation.—The habitual purchase or sale of securities of a notoriously fluctuating value shall be deemed to be speculation in investment within the meaning of this sub-rule.

(2) No Board's employee shall make, or permit his wife or any member of his family to make, any investment likely to embarrass or influence him in the discharge of his official duties.

(3) If any question arises whether a security or investment is of the nature referred to in sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2), the decision of the Board thereon shall be final.

(4) No Board's employee shall, except with the previous sanction of the Board, lend money to any person possessing land or valuable property within the local limits of his authority, or at interest to any person.

Provided that a Board's employee may make an advance of pay to a private servant, or give a loan of small amount free of interest to a personal friend or relative, even if such person possesses land within the local limits of his authority.

(5) No Board's employee shall, save in the ordinary course of business with a bank or a firm of standing, borrow money from or otherwise place himself under pecuniary obligation to any person within the local limits of his authority, or any other person with whom he is likely to have official dealings, nor shall he permit any member of his family, except with the previous sanction of the Board, to account with a bona fide tradesman.

Provided that a Board's employee may accept a purely temporary loan of small amount, free of interest, from a personal friend or relative or operate a credit account with a bonafide tradesman.

(6) When a Board's employee is appointed or transferred to a post of such a nature as to involve him in the breach of any of the provision of sub-rule (4) or sub-rule (5), he shall forthwith report the circumstances to the Board, and shall thereafter act in accordance with such orders as may be passed by the Board.

14. Insolvency and habitual indebtedness.—A Board's employee shall manage his private affairs as to avoid habitual indebtedness or insolvency. A Board's employee who becomes the subject of a legal proceeding for insolvency shall forthwith report the full facts to the Board.

15. Movable, immovable and valuable property.—(1) No Board's employee shall, except with the previous knowledge of the prescribed authority, acquire or dispose of any immovable property by lease, mortgage, purchase, sale, gift or otherwise, either in his own name or in the name of any member of his family.

Provided that any such transaction conducted otherwise than through a regular or reputed dealer shall require the previous sanction of the prescribed authority.

Explanation.—The prescribed authority for the purposes of this sub-rule shall be—

(i) the Chairman in the case of all Class I & II Officers.

(ii) Heads of Departments in the case of all Class III & IV officers.

2. A Board's employee who enters into any transaction concerning any moveable property exceeding one thousand rupees in value whether by way of purchase, sale, or otherwise, shall forthwith report such transaction to the prescribed authority, referred to in sub-rule (1):

Provided that no Board's employee shall enter into any such transaction except with or through a regular or reputed dealer or agent or with the previous sanction of the said prescribed authority.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this sub-rule, the expression "movable property" includes inter alia the following property, namely:—

(a) jewellery, insurance policies, shares, securities and debentures;

(b) loans advanced by such Board's employee, whether secured or not;

(c) motor cars, motor cycles, horses or any other means of conveyance; and

(d) refrigerators, radios and radiograms.

(3) Every member of Class I and Class II services shall, on first appointment in the Board's service and thereafter at intervals of every twelve months, submit a return in such form as the Board may specify in this behalf, of all immovable property owned, acquired or inherited by him or held by him on lease or mortgage, either in his own name or in the name of any member of his family or in the name of any other person.

(4) The Board or any authority empowered by it in this behalf may at any time, by general or special order, require a Board's employee to submit, within a period specified in the order, a full and complete statement of such movable or immovable property held or acquired by him or by any member of his family as may be specified in the order. Such statement shall, if so required by the Board or by the authority so empowered, include details of the means by which, or the source from which, such property was acquired.

16. Vindication of acts and character of Board's employees.—No Board's employee shall, except with the previous sanction of the Board, have recourse to any court or to the press for the vindication of any official act which has been the subject matter of adverse criticism or an attack of defamatory character.

Explanation.—Nothing in this rule shall be deemed to prohibit a Board's employee from vindicating his private character or any act done by him in his private capacity.

17. Canvassing of non-official, or other outside influence.—No Board's employee shall bring or attempt to bring any political or other outside influence to bear upon any superior authority to further his interests in respect of matters pertaining to his service under the Board.

18. Bigamous marriages.—No Board's employee who has a wife living shall contract another marriage without first obtaining the permission of the Board, notwithstanding that such subsequent marriage is permissible under the personal law for the time being applicable to him.

19. Interpretation.—If any question arises relating to the interpretation of these rules, it shall be referred to the Central Government whose decision thereon shall be final.

20. Delegation of powers.—The Board may, by general or special order, direct that any power exercisable by it or any head of Department under these rules (except the powers under rule 19 and this rule), shall subject to such conditions, if any, as may be specified in the order, be exercisable also by such officer or authority as may be specified in the order.

21. Repeal and saving.—Any rules corresponding to these rules in force immediately before the commencement of these rules and applicable to the Board's employees to whom these rules apply are hereby repealed.

Provided that any order made or action taken under the rules so repealed shall be deemed to have been made or taken under the corresponding provisions of these rules.
